37th ANNUAL SPORTS EMMY® AWARDS

CBS' Verne Lundquist to Receive Lifetime Achievement Award

Nominees to be Honored During the May 10th Ceremony At Jazz at Lincoln Center's Frederick P Rose Hall

New York, NY – March 31, 2016 - The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (NATAS) today announced the nominees for the 37th Annual Sports Emmy® Awards.

"The evolution of sports television and the technologies that enhance the viewer's ability to experience each game continue to amaze us," said Bob Mauro, President, NATAS. "The world of sports television grows larger with each passing year and who better encompasses that diverse sphere than this year's lifetime achievement honoree, Verne Lundquist, who over his more than 40 years of broadcast experience has covered the Olympics, golf, football, basketball, swimming, diving, boxing, soccer, horse racing and just about every other sport known to man! This year's nominees continue to raise the bar and our gala promises to be an exciting evening for our 200 nominees and the world of sports television."

"What a year in sports: a Triple Crown winner (at last), a dramatic World Series, the changing of the guard at the Masters and a hard-fought upset in the Super Bowl, just to name a few highlights," said Steve Ulrich, Senior Vice President of the Sports Emmy Awards. "These great milestones, along with some evocative work from the sports documentary community are the hallmarks of this year's entries."

Nominations were announced in 40 categories including Outstanding Live Sports Special, Live Sports Series and Playoff Coverage, three Documentary categories, Outstanding New Media, Outstanding Play-by-Play Announcer and Studio Host, among others. The Awards will be presented on Tuesday, May 10th, 2016 at Jazz at Lincoln Center's prestigious Frederick P. Rose Hall, located in the Time Warner Center in New York City.
